FACULTY

Dana Kilonsky, MA, CCC-SLP, graduated with her master’s degree in 2014 from University of Maryland and has worked as a speech-language pathologist at The Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland, for more than 6 years. She works with adult patients in the acute care setting, with a focus on surgery and trauma populations. Kilonsky has an interest in critical care populations and patients with tracheostomy. Kilonsky has completed clinical research on patients with tracheostomy and quality of life. She has a passion for clinical education, serving as the SLP student program coordinator and mentor for the SLP intensive care unit fellowship program at The Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Financial Disclosures:

- Salary from The Johns Hopkins Hospital
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures:

- None

Deadria Clarke, RRT, has been a respiratory therapist at The Johns Hopkins Hospital for 8 years, working primarily in the cardiovascular surgical intensive care unit and the emergency room.

Financial Disclosures:

- Salary from The Johns Hopkins Hospital
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures:

- None