FACULTY

Debbie Stanhouse, MEd, CCC-SLP, CCM, is a speech-language pathologist with a rich background of experience in a variety of settings, including the public school system, children’s hospital, and adult hospital settings. The bulk of her experience has been accrued while working collaboratively as part of a treatment team in order to address the needs of individuals who have sustained a traumatic brain injury. Stanhouse stays professionally active in many aspects of the field, including mentoring new SLPs and education through presentations.
