Improving Outcomes for Students with Severe Disabilities

INTRODUCTION

School-based SLPs who serve students with severe disabilities face unique challenges related to student outcomes, intervention planning, and workload. This recorded session from ASHA’s 2021 Schools Connect online conference explores ways to support student outcomes while balancing workload concerns. The presenter discusses long-term student outcomes, writing SMART IEP goals, and an integrated intervention approach, as well as strategies to implement these ideas in your workplace.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
You will be able to:
- Identify long-term outcome goals for students on your caseload
- Write IEP goals that support the students’ long-term outcome goals
- List stakeholders to involve in an integrated intervention approach
