Engaging and Manageable School-Based AAC Telepractice

FACULTY

Sarah Gregory, MS, CCC-SLP, is a speech-language pathologist and Assistive Technology consultant in the Ithaca City School District in Upstate New York. She specializes in Augmentative and Alternative Communication in a public school setting with a focus on inclusion. Gregory presents on these topics at national and statewide conferences. She shares tech tips for AAC and teletherapy on her YouTube channel, Twitter, and Instagram.

Financial Disclosures:
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation
- Salary from the Ithaca City School District
- Income from speaking honorariums and online courses
- Receives codes to trial therapy products/tools

Nonfinancial Disclosures:
- ASHA member
- Affiliate and professional development committee member of ASHA SIG 12

Hannah Foley, BA, is the Product & Service Development Intern and an Ambassador at PRC-Saltillo. She is currently attending the University of Illinois at Chicago to complete her Assistive Technology Certification with a concentration in augmentative and alternative communication (AAC) and assistive technology (AT) for education. Foley aims to pursue a professional career in AAC training and implementation to facilitate collaboration and effective training for implementation of AAC among all members of AAC support teams.

Financial Disclosures:
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation
- Income from PRC-Saltillo
- Income from speaking honorariums and online courses
- Received codes to trial therapy products/tools

Nonfinancial Disclosures:
- USAAC Member Mentor/Consultant for AAC users, parents, & clinicians