FACULTY

Gloria Soto, PhD, completed her doctorate in Special Education with a concentration in Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) in 1994 at Purdue University. She has been on the SFSU faculty since 1995, holding a joint appointment in the Department of Speech, Language and Hearing Sciences and the Department of Special Education. Her areas of interests include language development and intervention through AAC, provision of AAC services in school settings, professional attitudes toward the use of AAC, and the provision of AAC services to children from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds. Among Soto’s numerous publications are two books, Practically Speaking: Language, Literacy, and Academic Development for Students with AAC Needs, co-edited with Dr. Carole Zangari, and AAC in the Schools: Best Practices for Interventions, coauthored with Dr. Nancy Robinson.
