Ethics in Social Media Engagement

FACULTY

Tracy L. Grammer, MS, CCC-SLP, is an SLP with 30 years of experience working with adults experiencing cognitive dysfunction, aphasia, dysphonia, dysarthria, dysphagia, and apraxia secondary to CVA, TBI, glossectomy, laryngectomy, tracheostomy, and ventilator dependency. She is employed at OU Health in the department of otolaryngology, as well as serving as faculty member of the OUHSC College of Medicine Department of Otolaryngology and the OUHSC College of Communication Sciences and Disorders. Grammer serves as the Chair of Oklahoma Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology after having served two consecutive terms from 2009–2015. She served on the ASHA Board of Ethics from 2016–2020; the ASHA SLP Advisory Council from 2015–2018; and ASHA Legislative Councilor from 2005–2008. She is a two-term past president of the Oklahoma Speech-Language-Hearing Association. Grammer is the Director and founder of Camp Sunrise, an outdoor retreat for adult survivors of traumatic brain injury, which began in 2000. Grammer was awarded ASHA Fellow in 2014. She is an invited lecturer on topics including dysphagia, ethics, leadership, traumatic brain injury, cognition, and SLP services in tracheostomy & ventilator dependency.

Financial Disclosures:

- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation
- Full-time speech-language pathologist at the Stephenson Cancer Center of OU Medicine
- Adjunct assistant professor, Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center
- Paid invited lecturer in the areas of cognition, dysphagia, ethics, voice and swallowing issues with tracheostomy and mechanical ventilation
- Per diem consultant for Atos Medical, Inc.
- ASHA Convention registration paid by Janelle Publications, Inc. for role as a convention booth consultant

Nonfinancial Disclosures:

- Chair of the Oklahoma Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology & Audiology
- Ordained Minister
- Member of the Board of Directors for Central Oklahoma Camp
- Former member of the ASHA Board of Ethics (this presentation is not an official presentation of the BOE and represents the viewpoint of the presenter), ASHA Advisory Council, ASHA Legislative Council, and Board of Directors of the National Council of State Boards for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology
- Former president of the Oklahoma Brain Injury Association, Oklahoma Speech-Language Association

ASHA Self-Study PD102265