FACULTY

Jolene Barbutes, MS, CCC-SLP, RAC-CT, is a Regional Vice President for Encore Rehabilitation, where she oversees operations of therapy departments in skilled nursing facilities and home health. Barbutes volunteers with ASHA’s gerontology special interest group (SIG 15) on the PDM Committee and as CE Manager. Her specialty areas of practice include clinical consultation, data modeling, and mentoring leaders.

Financial Disclosures:
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures:
- None

Robynne Kratchman, ABD, MS, CCC-SLP, is currently the President of the New Jersey Speech-Language-Hearing Association. Kratchman has extensive experience in the field of speech-language pathology, having worked in early intervention, acute care, long-term care, skilled nursing, rehabilitation, home care, and private practice settings. Her experience includes work with adults and children with disorders of voice, language, fluency, articulation, and swallowing. Since 1998, Kratchman has been the Director of Speech-Language Pathology Programs at Speech and Hearing Associates, a large private practice with nine offices in eight New Jersey counties.

Financial Disclosures:
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures:
- None

Monica Sampson, PhD, CCC-SLP, is the director of health care services in speech-language pathology at ASHA. Sampson has had a diverse career spanning clinical service delivery, research, academia, and health policy. At ASHA, she has made it a strategic priority for her team to support medical SLPs to improve patient outcomes via interprofessional practice (IPP) and person-centered care. Sampson also serves as a key stakeholder in IPP technical expert panels that work collaboratively to impact federal policy as it relates to standardization of care in post-acute care settings.

Financial Disclosures:
- ASHA employee

Nonfinancial Disclosures:
- None