FACULTY

Christine Sapienza, PhD, CCC-SLP, serves as the Provost and Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and a professor in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders. The provost serves as the chief academic officer of Jacksonville University. Sapienza is responsible for ensuring the quality of undergraduate, graduate, and professional education and enhancing Jacksonville University’s function as a prominent private and distinguished comprehensive university through excellence in faculty teaching, research, scholarship, and service. Sapienza works together with members of the Provost Leadership team and other university leaders and faculty to frame academic priorities and policy; allocate resources appropriately; and oversee faculty evaluation, faculty tenure and promotion process, and post-tenure review. Sapienza leads the preparation of the university’s annual operating budget and accreditation. Sapienza received the Jacksonville Business Journal 2016 Woman of Influence award, which recognizes women who have shaped and led in Jacksonville’s business community. Out of a record number of nominees in 2016, only 25 were selected through their work, words, and accomplishments as inspirational leaders for the First Coast.

Financial Disclosures
- Education presenter for multiple agencies on the topic of respiratory muscle strength training
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures
- None