Helping Families Act as Speech and Language Coaches

INTRODUCTION

Coaching can happen anywhere, with any age child, no matter the communication disorder. This session from ASHA’s 2021 Schools Connect online conference explores the power of coaching caregivers. The speaker discusses how to train family members and other facilitators to use speech-language intervention strategies with their children to produce better long-term outcomes.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
You will be able to:
- Identify various facilitators to coach
- Identify coaching and counseling strategies to use with facilitators
