Getting What You Need From Your Administrator

INTRODUCTION

This session from ASHA’s 2021 Schools Connect online conference shares five key tips for SLPs to use when communicating with school administrators. The presenter – a former school-based SLP who has been a district-level special education administrator for more than 10 years – provides key insights for preparing for and having discussions with administrators.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
You will be able to:
- Identify appropriate strategies for presenting your concerns, needs, and potential solutions to your administrator
- Concisely and clearly present your needs to your administrator
