Conversations on AAC with Matthew Baud, Jill Senner, & Gloria Soto

INTRODUCTION

This recorded dialogue features three AAC experts, who discuss person- and family-centered approaches to AAC, focusing on effective, culturally and linguistically responsive assessment practices.

The exchange was recorded at the 2021 online conference "Expanding AAC: Accessible Strategies for Functional Communication" and is a companion to two recorded sessions from the conference: Effective Practices in AAC Assessment (Jill E. Senner, PhD, CCC-SLP, and Matthew R. Baud, MS, CCC-SLP) and A Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Approach to AAC (Gloria Soto, PhD). The dialogue was moderated by Carole Zangari, PhD, CCC-SLP.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

You will be able to:

- Adjust vocabulary selection for languages spoken and cultural and family-centered needs
- Describe strategies for coaching and working with families to meet AAC goals for their children
- Discuss safety concerns and solutions related to transporting AAC devices
