Feeding Tubes in Adults With Advanced Illness: Use, Overuse, and the SLP’s Role

FACULTY

Joseph Shega, MD, is a Board Certified Geriatrician and Hospice and Palliative Care Physician who focuses his educational and research efforts on the management of individuals with dementia, including end-stage eating problems. Currently, he serves as the Regional Medical Director for VITAS Healthcare.

Financial Disclosures

- Employed by VITAS Healthcare
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures

- Chair of the Ethics Committee at the American Geriatrics Society

Paula Leslie, PhD, FRCSLT, CCC-SLP, is clinically licensed in the United States and United Kingdom as a speech-language pathologist and is the director of the clinical doctorate in medical speech-language pathology at the University of Pittsburgh. Her interests lie with vulnerable populations, complex decisions, and end-of-life care.

Financial Disclosures

- Employed by University of Pittsburgh
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures

- No nonfinancial relationships to the content of the course