FACULTY

Joseph Murray, PhD, CCC-SLP, is the chief of the Audiology Speech Pathology Service for the VA Ann Arbor Healthcare System and is an ASHA Fellow. His research and publications are in the area of assessment, treatment, and management of patients with dysphagia. He is the author of Manual of Dysphagia Assessment in Adults and has provided numerous workshops, seminars, and invited lectures in North and South America, Australia, and Europe.

Financial Disclosures
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation
- Chief of the Audiology Speech Pathology Service for the VA Ann Arbor Healthcare System

Nonfinancial Disclosures
- ASHA Fellow

Nancy B. Swigert, MA, CCC-SLP, BCS-S, is president of Swigert & Associates, Inc., a consulting firm. She recently retired from Baptist Health Lexington, where she served as the Director of Speech-Language Pathology and Respiratory Care for 10 years, then as a certified Green Belt in Lean/Six Sigma and Process Excellence Coordinator. She is a Board Certified Specialist in Swallowing and Swallowing Disorders. She chaired the American Board of Swallowing and Swallowing Disorders from 2012–2014. Swigert’s main clinical interests are in the area of pediatric and adult dysphagia, and she lectures and writes extensively in these areas. She also writes and lectures on coding, documentation, and reimbursement. She served on ASHA’s Health Care Economics Committee for 9 years and chaired it for 6. Swigert received her master’s degree from the University of Tennessee–Knoxville. She received the Honors of ASHA in 2015.

Financial Disclosures
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation
- Royalties from ProEd

Nonfinancial Disclosures
- ASHA volunteer and frequent contributor to ASHA SIG 13 publications on this topic