FACULTY

Keli Richmond, MS, CCC-SLP, is a practicing school-based SLP with the Northside Independent School District in San Antonio, Texas. She strives to improve speech, language, and literacy skills as she collaborates with Head Start, preschool, and kinder-aged classrooms. Promoting her passion to help children communicate, Richmond conducts in-service training for school-based personnel, presents accredited continuing education seminars nationwide for Northern Speech Services, and speaks at speech-language-hearing conventions, educator conferences, and related events. She is the author of Literacy Speaks!, a comprehensive program driven by orthographic instruction (printed cues). The Literacy Speaks! program focuses on improving speech intelligibility and expanding language skills while developing a strong literacy foundation.
