Maia Braden, MS, CCC-SLP, is a speech-language pathologist and pediatric voice supervisor at the UW Madison Voice and Swallow Clinics at American Family Children’s Hospital. She specializes in cleft palate and craniofacial anomalies as well as pediatric voice, airway, and resonance disorders, and has strong clinical and research interests in improving feeding and communication outcomes in children born with cleft palate and craniofacial conditions.

Financial Disclosures:

- Salary from UW Medical Foundation
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures:

- No nonfinancial relationships to the content of this presentation