

FACULTY

Paula Leslie, PhD, FRCSLT, CCC-SLP, supports clinicians and researchers at local to international levels with complex decision-making, ethics, end-of-life, and vulnerable populations. As a professor at the University of Pittsburgh, she directs the Clinical Doctorate in Medical Speech-Language Pathology and is interested in nontraditional routes to advanced clinical training. Leslie is a member of the British SIG in Palliative and Supportive Care, and serves on the ASHA Special Interest Group Coordinating Committee for SIG 15 (Gerontology) and the editorial board of ASHA SIG 13 (Swallowing and Swallowing Disorders). She is a full member of the Dysphagia Research Society (USA) and a founding member and current scientific chairperson of the UK Swallow Research Group. Leslie is a Fellow of the Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists and has received the SWPSHA Honors of the Association and the Louis M DiCarlo Award for contributions to palliative care and SLP work.

Financial Disclosures

- Employee of University of Pittsburgh
- Book royalties from J&R Press
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures

- No nonfinancial relationships relevant to the content of this presentation