FACULTY

Stuart Trembath, MA, CCC-A, received his BA in speech and hearing science from Michigan State University and his MA in audiology from Northwestern University. His past work includes a hospital setting – Cook County Hospital in Chicago – as well as an educational setting – Northern Trails Area Education Agency in Iowa. He is sole owner of Hearing Associates, P.C., in Mason City, Iowa, which has grown from a two-audiologist practice in 1987 to a six-audiologist practice today. Trembath is a past president of the Iowa Speech-Language-Hearing Association, the current co-chair of ASHA’s Health Care Economics Committee, and ASHA’s representative to the American Medical Association’s Current Procedural Terminology Editorial Panel.

Financial Disclosures
- Owner of Hearing Associates, P.C.
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures
- Co-chair of ASHA’s Health Care Economics Committee
- ASHA’s representative to the American Medical Association’s Current Procedural Terminology Editorial Panel

Leisha R. Eiten, AuD, CCC-A, is Associate Director of Audiology at Boys Town National Research Hospital. She has served on task forces to develop Pediatric Amplification Guidelines and Remote Microphone HAT Guidelines. She is a past president of the Nebraska Speech-Language-Hearing Association. She is currently a member of ASHA’s Health Care Economics Committee (HCEC) and serves as ASHA’s audiology representative to the American Medical Association’s Relative Value Update Committee (RUC) Health Care Professionals Advisory Committee (HCPAC).

Financial Disclosures
- Associate Director of Audiology at Boys Town National Research Hospital
- Travel reimbursement from ASHA for her roles on the HCEC and RUC-HCPAC
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures
- Member of ASHA’s HCEC
- ASHA’s audiology representative to the American Medical Association’s RUC-HCPAC and RUC PE Subcommittee
- Co-chair of the Nebraska Speech-Language-Hearing Association’s Insurance and Reimbursement Committee