Maureen Staskowski, PhD, CCC-SLP, is a Speech, Language, and Literacy Consultant for Macomb Intermediate School District. She works regularly with speech-language pathologists to improve evidence-based service delivery and curriculum-relevant practices for oral and written language. She also oversees professional development for SLPs and leads assistive technology and augmentative communication for the districts in her intermediate unit. She is an ASHA Fellow and has served on several national and state committees related to speech, language, augmentative communication, reading, and writing. She has also presented and published on these topics.

Financial Disclosures
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation
- Salary for employment from the Macomb Intermediate School District

Nonfinancial Disclosures
- No nonfinancial relationships relevant to this presentation