FACULTY

Shannon Liem, MS, CCC-SLP, COS-C, is a graduate of Florida State University and has been with Aegis Therapies for over 20 years, with experience as a SLP for almost 25 years. She is currently fulfilling the role of Home Health Specialist, assisting with clinical programming, compliance, and regulatory updates within the home health environment.

Financial Disclosures
- Employee of Aegis Therapies
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures
- None

Jessica Pranke, MS, CCC-SLP, RAC-CT, is currently a Clinical Practice Specialist for Aegis Therapies in Florida. She received her BA in communication sciences and disorders from University of Florida and her MS in speech-language pathology from University of South Florida. Since 2004, working with Aegis Therapies, she has served in both operational and clinical roles. She currently provides training in the areas of neurocognitive impairments and complex disease management.

Financial Disclosures
- Employee of Aegis Therapies
- Financial compensation from ASHA for this presentation

Nonfinancial Disclosures
- None