FACULTY

Dr. Deborah Culbertson has been offering auditory rehabilitation services to adults with hearing loss for over 30 years. Her background of knowledge includes communication strategies training; assistive device (including hearing aids, cochlear implants, and other accessories) selection, fitting, and care; perceptual training; and supportive counseling. Over the years, there have been significant changes in technology, but the focus of all care remains the person with hearing loss.

Financial Disclosures:
- No financial relationships relevant to the content of the session

Nonfinancial Disclosures:
- No nonfinancial relationships relevant to the content of the session

Ms. Emily Brewer is a speech-language pathologist and LSLS Certified AVT. She has been offering AR services to children and adults with hearing aids and cochlear implants in collaboration with audiology colleagues for over 10 years.

Financial Disclosures:
- Paid faculty member of East Carolina University

Nonfinancial Disclosures:
- No nonfinancial relationships relevant to the content of the session