FACULTY

Perry Flynn is an ASHA Fellow and Vice President for Planning. He is a Professor at UNCG and the Consultant to the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction in the area of Speech-Language Pathology.

Financial Disclosures:
- Salary paid by UNCG

Nonfinancial Disclosures:
- Member of ASHA Board of Directors

Laurie Ray has served North Carolina as consultant to NC Department of Public Instruction (NC DPI) for Physical Therapy (2005), Medicaid (2006), and Adapted Physical Education liaison (2010). She serves the APTA’s Academy of Pediatric Physical Therapists (APPT) as the School Special Interest Group (School SIG) chair and on the Policy, Payment and Advocacy Committee. She is an Associate Professor at UNC-Chapel Hill and reviews for Pediatric Occupational & Physical Therapy and Pediatric Physical Therapy.

Financial Disclosures:
- Paid consultant PNC Dept. of Public Instruction, Exceptional Children Division

Nonfinancial Disclosures:
- Member of APTA/APPT, continuing employee of NC DPI

Lauren Holahan, PhD, OT/L, is SSIP & Medicaid Coordinator for the NCDPI. Provides TA, PD, and policy analysis/development, and advocacy services related to systemic improvement for students with disabilities, school mental health, and school-based Medicaid programs. Research and practice interests include: implementation science for school improvement; school mental health; school-based occupational therapy; related services under IDEA; administration/management of related service personnel; ethics in occupational therapy practice and special education; and school-based Medicaid cost recovery.

Financial Disclosures:
- No financial relationships relevant to the content of the session

Nonfinancial Disclosures:
- No nonfinancial relationships relevant to the content of the session