DISCLOSURES

Use of Design Thinking to Inform Eligibility Recommendations for Children With Spoken Language and Literacy Disorders in Schools
Kelly Farquharson
Florida State University
Tallahassee, FL

Jaumeiko J. Coleman
Atlanta Speech School
Atlanta, GA

Barbara J. Moore
University of Southern California
Los Angeles, CA

Judy K. Montgomery
Chapman University
Orange, CA

Disclosures
The authors have no relevant financial or nonfinance interests to disclose.

Electropalatographic Therapy and Speech Production for Children With Down Syndrome
Christen G. Page
Eastern Kentucky University
Richmond, KY

Katelynn Johnson
Eastern Kentucky University

Disclosures
The authors have no relevant financial or nonfinance interests to disclose.

Speech-Language Pathologists as Expert and Fact Witnesses in Special Education Disputes and Civil Litigation Cases: A Tutorial
Brenda Chafin Seal
Communication Sciences and Disorders, James Madison University
Harrisonburg, VA
Speech-Language Pathology, Gallaudet University
Washington, DC

Lissa Power-deFur
Communication Sciences and Disorders, College of Education and Human Services,
Longwood University
Farmville, VA

ASHA Self-Study WEBS1621624
Disclosures
Financial: Brenda Chafin Seal and Lissa Power-deFur have a commissioned book (Speech-Language Pathologists as Expert Witnesses, ASHA, 2020).
Nonfinancial: Brenda Chafin Seal and Lissa Power-deFur have presented and written on this topic.